

Make a Difference!

Mentor an Autistic Young Person

Volunteers needed:

To provide a supportive relationship and help a young person (12-24)

- ✓ With positive well-being and building life skills
- ✓ Have fun and explore new interests
- ✓ Build confidence and self esteem
- ✓ Engage in activities at home and in their community

What: Regular Face to face and virtual support- for up to 6 months

Where: Locations across North, Central and West London

No prior experience necessary

Our Volunteers:

- ✓ Receive excellent induction training and ongoing support
- ✓ Make a massive impact
- ✓ Gain valuable skills, experience and a greater understanding of autism
- ✓ Are a central part of our vibrant and caring team

Express your interest to us here

SUPPORTED BY

MAYOR OF LONDON

Get in touch...

Online: resourcesforautism.org.uk (click volunteering)

Email: natalia@resourcesforautism.org.uk

Phone: 07791 403 395

resources for autism